Key Scripture: Read the following together.

27 Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

John 14:27

1. What does this scripture tell me about me?
2. What does this scripture tell me about God?

Start Sharing: Choose one question to start the conversation, move onto others if time allows.

- Where in your life are you seeking peace from the world rather than from Jesus Himself— and how is that affecting your sense of stability or identity? How can you adjust to allow your peace to come from Jesus?
- In what ways does the world try to create or promise peace today, and why is that peace ultimately insufficient apart from Christ? (1 Thessalonians 5:1–3)
- Do you see Jesus as the “Prince of Peace” who brings order, not as someone you must perform for but Someone who has already favored you?
- (Read Romans 5:1 and reflect on the idea that peace is received by faith, not earned.)
- Read Matthew 10:34 and think about the cost of giving your life to Jesus. Is there any area of your life where Jesus’ “sword” (putting Him first) is creating tension, and how might that tension actually be an invitation into deeper peace with Him?

Start Praying: Pray together and for one another.
“Jesus, we turn away from the peace the world offers and turn to Your true peace! We receive it by faith today! We thank you for this free gift. Help us give our whole lives to You daily. Amen.”
